

Dynamics of Higher Education Development in East-Asia—Four Contestable Hypotheses: Western Dominance, Asian Cultural Heritage, Economic Development, and Globalization

Edited by J. Hawkins, D. Neubauer and J. C. Shin

Table of Contents:

Chapter 1 Introduction: Four Hypotheses of Higher Education Development (D. Neubauer & J. C. Shin)

Part 1. Cultural Tradition and Higher Education Development

Chapter 2. Higher Education Development in East Asian Countries Focusing on Cultural Tradition and Economic Systems (JC Shin)

Chapter 3. Between the East and the West: Challenges for Internationalizing Higher Education in Asia (S. Chan)

Chapter 4. East-West? Tradition and the Development of Hybrid Higher Education in Asia (J. Hawkins)

Chapter 5. Situating Higher Education in China: From Universal History to the Research Paradigm (Y. Xun)

Part 2. Economic Development and Higher Education Development

Chapter 6. Meeting Point of the East and the West: Globalizing or Localizing Higher Education in East Asia (K. H. Mok)

Chapter 7. Higher Education Development, Culture and Economy in Indonesia (F. Jalal)

Chapter 8. Cultural and Historical Factors Influencing the Development of Higher Education in Thailand (S. Bhumiratana)

Part 3. Globalization and Higher Education Development

Chapter 9. The Globalized University as the Next Stage in Higher Education Development (D. Neubauer)

Chapter 10. Globalization Practices in Asia-Pacific Universities (M. Lee)

Chapter 11. Structural Transformation of Japanese Higher Education: Adopting to Meet Challenges Posed by Globalization and Market Economy (R. Yamada)

Conclusion

Chapter 12: (J. Hawkins, D. Neubauer & J. C. Shin)—Is There An Asian Hybrid University?